

ZEPPELIN!

"... thus far the historical record has shown clearly that communal strife complicates the decolonization process considerably. If one cites ..." Sandwiched in between a history exam and an ADWA meeting comes the fifty-eighth issue of Zeppelin!, an Atlantic Canadian wargaming periodical typed up without the aid of such artificial contrivances as correction fluid, master shields, or manual dexterity . I'm Laurence J.P. Gillespie, of 23 Robert Allen Drive, Halifax, Nova Scotia, B3M 3G9. This is April 15th, 1978, and subscriptions are available at the soon to be increased rate of 10/$2.00. We currently feature openings in War In The Air, Holocaust Diplomacy, Pete Walker's WWI variant, and many more .The editor is a member of ADWA/DUCSS/DTS.

Zeppelin is currently in a state of fiscal rigor mortis. We still solicit articles though, as I'm hopeful things will improve by summer...$

THE GAMES

Please quadruple check all adjudications this time round. I am unbelievably busy these days, and without corflu I'm very likely to make lots of typos....

A certain country in this game submitted orders conditional on two retreats which never occurred . I was faced with the choice of NMRing said country, delaying the game, or choosing some sort of compromise solution . My compromise was to roll up a semi-random set of orders for said country, using my V&V monster dice. I assigned a one third probability to each of the conditionals he submitted plus a third category of no orders at all. I would advise players to cover all conditionals in the future, however unlikely, as it really puts me through a ringer trying to find an equitable solution . Please note that England retreated A Bur-Gas, and A Alb-Gre

Cork Popper-(November 1) The local England Go Home committee claims the ruler of France, a good American born Irisher, is getting ready to send his navy to bolster our cause. Its agents in London made sure the British heard the news, which is why the Government has about collapsed. Some even claim that Austrian army coming into France was invited last winter and could now be going to sunny Sooth if they weren't so shiftless.
